Captain Ralph Hodder Williams,

90 Morningside Drive,

New York City.

Dear Mr. Williams:

I am to be in New York on Saturday and Sunday. I expect to arrive in the city from Philadelphia on Saturday morning. I am engaged for luncheon and during the early afternoon. I will, however, try to telephone to you some time in the day and make arrangements with you so that we may have a talk while I am in the city. My address will be care of Dr. Walter F. Chappell, 7 East 55th Street.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Captain Rodger Williams,

Camp Columbia,

Morris,

Litchfield County, Conn.,

U.S.A.

Dear Captain Williams:

I am enclosing you a copy of a letter from Colonel Osborne. You will now see from his letter that the matter of your transfer rests in your own hands.

Yours sincerely,

President.
